DECLARATION OF NON-CONSENT AND LEGAL STANDING

I, a man, rightful owner of the name "Cope: Winston-O'neil" (also known/referred to as "Winston O'neil Cope" and/or other derivatives and shortened forms), a private Jamaican national and lawful man under the authority and protection of divine and natural law, hereby issue this Declaration of Non-Consent in relation to all presumed or compelled participation in statutory, commercial, or administrative schemes which violate my constitutional protections or natural rights.

I affirm and declare:

- I am not a commercial entity, resident instrumentality, or legal fiction subject to presumptive customs enforcement or fee-based civil interaction.
- I do not consent to the misclassification of my private property as "goods" under the Customs Act or any commercial statute where no trade or resale is intended.
- I assert and stand upon my fundamental rights protected under Sections 13 to 17 of the Jamaica (Constitution) Order in Council 1962 and relevant protections under international human rights law.
- 4. I do not waive any rights by silence, non-response, physical presence, or failure to contest assumptions.
- 5. Any interference with my person, name, presence, body, biological property, physical property, or other lawful property without due process and lawful cause is a violation of rights and shall attract commercial liability as outlined in my

Public Rights Activation Notice published in The Gleaner and hosted publicly on https://voiceofjamaica.com/declarations/.
